

STUDENT COMPLAINTS & GRIEVANCES

Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine is committed to receiving and addressing written student complaints against the College, its faculty, staff, or administrative personnel in a timely manner. This policy applies to all PCOM students, faculty, and staff.

This policy does not apply to discrimination, disability or sexual and gender-based grievances or complaints, which students should address following the processes identified in the Non Discrimination Policy, Disability and Accommodation Policy or Sexual Harassment (Title IX) Policy.

For student complaints and grievances, please refer to the full policy, which is located on MyPCOM.
