

LATE FEES

The Registrar's Office will charge a late fee to those students who have not completed their registration by the published deadline.

The Bursar's Office will charge a late fee to those students who have not completed their financial obligations. A late fee will be placed on each delinquent account 14 days after the due date and every 28 days after the tuition due date listed on your bill, until your account is paid in full.

If proceeds from loans are received by the Bursar and a student does not appear to endorse the check(s) within the authorized time period, a late fee on the balance payable by the loan will be applied retroactively.

In the event that a student receives and accepts a late admission to the first year of study, an exception to the above policy will be considered if the appropriate loan applications are filed immediately in the expectation of making full tuition payment. This exception is for the first payment period of the first year of study only. Any exceptions beyond the first payment period must be discussed with the Chief Student Services Officer
